Explore Living Donation
Education Program for Kidney Patients, Family & Friends

This program helps kidney patients and their family and friends make informed decisions about living donation.

Here’s what this program has to offer:

- The basics of living kidney donation
  - The advantages of living donation compared to waiting for a kidney from someone who has died (deceased donor transplant)
  - Common questions about the living donor process
  - Pros and cons of being a living donor
  - Possible risks of living donation

- How to find a living kidney donor
  - A guide to help patients make a plan to get a living donor kidney transplant
  - Practical strategies for how to prepare a message and get the word out

- How to help a loved one with kidney disease — a guide for family and friends
  - Basics about kidney disease and treatment options, including dialysis and transplant
  - Practical strategies to help your loved one
  - What to consider when thinking about becoming a living donor

- Real-life donation stories from people who have received living donor transplants or kidneys

- Resources available to patients, family, and friends

The goal of this program is to help kidney patients and their loved ones decide on and take actions that are right for them.
